The National School Boards Leadership Council is a nonprofit, professional organization whose mission is to train school board members and members of the community about the education issues facing our students.

Our Speakers...

AJ DEPRIEST

AJ DePriest was a healthcare policy and legislation analyst and researcher in the early 90s, battling Clinton-era socialized healthcare laws in Montana and WINNING against them.

Thirty years later, in January 2021, AJ founded Free States Project TN and Tennessee-based think tank, TN Liberty Network. TN Liberty Network's 27 members have been instrumental in supplying state lawmakers and other TN policy leaders actionable intel on issues ranging from Covid mandates, illegal immigration, election integrity, and government-run education.

KCarl

A retired U.S. Army officer, and former member of Pres Trump's Presidential Campaign Coalition Advisory Board, KCarl is a nationally recognized author, speaker and creator of the Frederick Douglass Republican Engagement Strategy™, a powerful and proven persuasive messaging approach, developed through 12 years of real-world successes. He is the foremost expert on diversity engagement, and has empowered thousands of grassroots Conservatives, candidates, and county and state leaders, with his proprietary, game-changing diversity outreach approach.

KCarl is an untiring Conservative advocate of government school system reform and an outspoken voice against the anti-liberty and anti-God agenda currently being forced upon our children.

Dr. Elizabeth Meyers

Thirty-one year advocate for classical liberal education and parental rights. She has traveled to Japan to study its education system, has worked as a research intern in the US Department of Education in DC, and is a contributing author. She received her doctorate from Southeastern Louisiana University, where she was awarded the Preston B. Allison Outstanding Dissertation Award. She has been active since moving to Tennessee, speaking out regarding education policies such as Common Core, Social Emotional Learning, and Critical Race Theory.

Our Speakers...

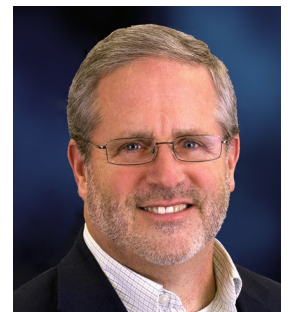

Rachel R. Citak, Attorney at Law

Rachel provides PR and legal representation to clients in Education Law and Employment Law. Her advocacy and public relations work has included appearances on radio and televised news media, testimony at the Ohio Statehouse, and penning high profile op-eds. She has extensive experience working as a registered lobbyist, in-house counsel, and private practitioner—serving parents, students, teachers, and school board members across the state of Ohio.

Melvin Adams

Melvin has been in education since 1982 when he first started teaching. He has 25 years of intercultural leadership experience in Africa, Europe, Asia, and the US. He was the Founding President Kiev Wesley Bible College (Ukraine) and RENEWANATION (US). He has served as a Sr. Advisor on Education to two US governor candidates and on the 2016 Presidential Transition Team. Melvin presently services as the Founder and President of Noah Webster Educational Foundation, a Virginia based organization with the vision to reclaim education and culture through foundational principles and sound policy.

Quisha King

Quisha King is a Senior Director with Moms for America, host of The Quisha King Show and Founder of the Mass Exodus Movement, that aims to get children into better learning environments. Currently, she is a national speaker on education issues and parental rights and has been featured on major news outlets and national TV shows.

Quisha received the 2021 Rising Stars Award from the RNC, was a featured guest at Governor Ron DeSantis's 2022 State of the State address, and was highlighted by Governor DeSantis for her remarks against critical race theory at the 2020 Faith & Freedom Conference.

Tamra Farah

Tamra serves as the Senior Director of MomForce, Moms for America's K-12 education and school board initiative, and MomVote.

Tamra has worked in policy and politics for over 15 years, serving as the Deputy State Director of Americans for Prosperity in Colorado, the Executive Director of Crisis Pregnancy Centers, and the Director of Human Trafficking Legislative Day at the Colorado State Capitol. Tamra has extensive experience in public relations and communications and has worked as a campaign strategist on local, state, and federal campaigns.
